FROM THE MAJOR-GENERAL COMDG. MALWA DN., TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Allahabad.

Camp Lullutpoor, Head Quarters, M. D. A.,

The 22nd October 1858.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you, for His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief's information, that having marched on the 18th instant from Balabeit to Narhut, for the purpose of covering Tehree, I received information at midnight that the enemy had marched from Lullutpoor to Sindwaho, and were that night at that place and the neighbouring villages, evidently with an intention of turning the protected ghats of the Jummi River, and passing to the East.

2. At 4 A. M., 19th October, I marched for Sindwaho, Force as per margin, expecting to reach it before the Rebels had passed beyond it; however the darkness of the morning, and the impossibility of finding the road prevented our arrival, until about half past 8 A. M., when I found the Rebels (aware of our approach from a bugle having been sounded contrary to orders) drawn up on a hill beyond Sindwaho, on the road to Marownee.

3. Their force was about 10,000 fighting men, amongst whom were vast numbers of Sepoys and Regulars of Contingents, with 4 guns.

4. As I did not intend to permit them to proceed to the East, so I rapidly advanced with a portion of my Cavalry parallel to their extreme left.

5. The enemy, aware of my intention, came down in strength and boldly attacked the Cavalry (8th Hussars and 1st Bombay Lancers); but were gallantly charged and driven back by those Regiments and 17th Lancers.

6. The Horse Artillery, having now arrived on the ground with the rest of the Cavalry, were played upon by the enemy's guns.

7. At this moment the Infantry were required; and Captain Cameron with the 92nd Highlanders, Colonel Hope with 71st Regiment, both in line, and Captain LeMarchand's 8-pounder battery came up on our left flank, followed by the 10th Regiment Native Infantry on their left rear, and drove the enemy up the hill.

8. The enemy then tried to turn both flanks, and the Horse Artillery and some Cavalry were so hardly pressed on the right by the enemy, posted in a field of high corn, as to enforce the necessity of bringing up the 10th Native Infantry, and graps was eventually necessary to drive the Rebels back.

9. The 92nd Highlanders also had to wheel to their left, and resist a flank attack on our extreme left.

10. The 71st Regiment still advanced steadily to the front up the hill under Lieutenant-Colonel Hope, and drove the enemy back; and the 4 guns of the enemy were captured by the combined movement of the 71st and 92nd Regiments.

11. The enemy now retreated at all points, and a general pursuit was made; the heaviness of the ground, being nearly all cultivated land and its broken nature, caused the pursuit to be slow. The enemy constantly rallied, or rather got massed, and Lieutenant-Colonel Blake with his Horse Artillery, and Captain LeMarchand with his Horse Battery, were frequently obliged to open fire to compel their retreat.

12. The pursuit was continued about 9 miles, and was eventually checked by the extreme difficulty of the country and its jungly nature, and the division of the enemy's force into small parties.

13. The ability and zeal with which Lieutenant-Colonel Lockhart commanded his Brigade, permits me to bring his name prominently to the notice of His Lordship. Colonel DeSalis commanded his Cavalry with zeal.

14. These Officers, whose separate Reports I enclose, record with approbation the names of those Officers who commanded portions of Regiments under their command, viz. :—

Lieut.-Col. Hope, Comdg. Wing, 71st Hdrs. Lt. I.
 Captain Cameron, " 92nd Highlanders.
 " Barrow, " 19th Regiment N. I.
 " LeMarchand, " B.A. (Field Battery.)
 Lieut.-Col. Blake, " 3rd T. Bombay H. A.
 " Curtis, " 1st Bombay Lancers.
 Capt. Sir Wm. Gordon, " M. H.'s 17th "
 Capt. Oldfield, " 3rd Bombay Light C.
 Major Chetwode, " 8th Hussars.
 Captain Mayne, " Mayne's Horse.

and also of their respective Staff Officers,
 Captain Parker, Comdg. Wing. H. M.'s 71st Lt. Infy.
 Lieut. Jenkins, " H. M.'s 8th Hussars.

15. Colonel DeSalis specially records the steadiness of the Horse Artillery under Lieutenant-Colonel Blake, when attacked by the enemy's Infantry in close proximity in some high jowaree crops.

16. Lieutenant-Colonel Curtis, 1st Lancers, in separate Command during a portion of the day (whose Report I also forward) brings specially to notice the zeal of Major Chetwode, in Command of the 8th Hussars, and the boldness of his personal exploits, as does Colonel DeSalis of the gallantry of Lieutenant Wood, of the 17th Lancers, who (having from paucity of Officers in the 3rd Cavalry, volunteered during the campaign to Command a Troop of the 3rd Light Cavalry,) on this occasion almost single handed came up to and attacked a body of the enemy.

17. On one occasion, after the enemy's Cavalry had been repulsed, Lieutenant-Colonel Curtis's Column of Cavalry were brought to a check by a deep gully; some few got across, gallantly led by some young Officers of various Corps, who all had personal encounters with the enemy, and whose merits are recorded by Lieutenant-Colonel Curtis. In all these records of approbation I cordially concur.

18. I am much indebted to my Staff for their active exertion in the field, viz. :—
 Capt. St. John, 92nd Hdrs. Actg. Asst. Qr.-Mr. Genl.
 Capt. Champion, 24th Regt. N. I., Asst. Adjt.-Genl.
 Major Elkington, H. M.'s 9th Royal Regt. A. D. C. and { Capt. Maude, 4th Bombay Rifles N. I., } both of { Lieut. Shewell, 23rd Bombay N. Lt. I., } whom on this occasion, as well as at the actions near Ragghur and Mungrowlee, acted as Staff Officers in the field.

19. I am much indebted to Captain Gordon Cumming, Assistant Political Agent for the Governor General, whose zeal in procuring me information, afforded me the opportunity of surprizing the enemy, and whose aid in the field was most valuable.

20. In recording the general good conduct of the Troops, I may state, that as on the Cavalry the whole of the loss of the day fell, so they did their duty well and gallantly. But I cannot refrain from expressing my admiration of that spirit of chivalrous endurance, which, during a rapid march of at least 20 miles over broken country, enabled our Infantry to keep almost up to the Cavalry, nor from recording a fact which shows the spirit of the British Soldier, that, notwithstanding the heat, when the firing commenced, all the sick of the 71st and 92nd Regiments could not be restrained, but fell into the ranks, and so remained to the close of the day.

21. The result of this day's operations was the capture of 4 guns, and 500 of the enemy left dead on the field. The Nawab of Banda's palkee, bloody, and evidently just evacuated, was captured during the pursuit.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. MICHEL, Major-Genl.,
 Commanding Malwa Division.

three quarters of a mile beyond it, for the purpose of allowing the hackeries containing the Siege Train Ammunition to close up, when I heard firing to my right rear. I immediately proceeded in that direction, followed by some Cavalry, and found the enemy in force firing into the rear of my Column. On arrival at the ground I ascertained that the enemy's Infantry was posted in a tope surrounded by a mud wall, with guns and Cavalry in rear, about seven hundred yards from the road, and that he also occupied the village of Berah, about four hundred yards to the right of the tope.

I directed two guns Bengal Horse Artillery to open upon the village and tope, one Company Her Majesty's 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers to extend to the left of Berah, whilst another Company of that Regiment and some Police Cavalry under Lieutenant Chamberlain, turned its right flank. After firing some rounds this small Force advanced, and was joined by two guns Royal Artillery and by some Cavalry under Captain Jones. I then placed the four guns and Cavalry on the left flank of the tope, and pushed forward two Companies of the 23rd Regiment to a mound that partly commanded it. The enemy kept up a heavy fire of musketry upon the guns and Infantry, and after some time retired in rear of the village, closely followed by my Cavalry and Artillery. The two Companies of the 23rd wheeling to their right, were joined by the one in the village, and, together with two Companies of the 7th Police Infantry, finally drove the enemy out of it, two again threw himself into a tope surrounded like the first by a mud wall; however the effective practice of the Artillery and of the Infantry pressing on from the village, compelled him after firing heavily for some time, to retire; when I desired Captain Jones to charge with a Squadron of the 1st Sikh Irregular Cavalry, which he did, until brought up by a jheel in his front through which the pursued passed into some high khets.

The enemy's Infantry retired in considerable force in the direction of Simree, about three miles from Berah. At a short distance from the road, he suddenly came upon a strong rear guard of my Column under Major Miller, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, who immediately opened fire with his guns and Infantry, effectually dispersing the enemy and driving him off to the South-West.

I had an unusually strong rear guard on that day, as Major Bulwer, 23rd Fusiliers, was escorting a large convey of hackeries, containing a month's supplies for my Force, from Poorwah, a day's march in my rear. I received information on the night of the 16th instant that, having made forced marches, he was only eight miles from me, and I therefore directed the rear guard, in the event of hearing firing to the rear, to fall back and support Major Bulwer's escort.

The enemy's force consisted of about five thousand men, all Sepoys, and four guns; they were more determined, and held their ground better than I had before seen them do, and their fire was at times heavy. We killed about one hundred and twenty men, and took three guns and a gun carriage from which I concluded that the fourth gun had been thrown down some well. The fire of the two guns Bengal Horse Artillery under Major Bruen, and of the two guns Royal Artillery under Lieutenant Cuthbert, was excellent, and materially assisted in driving off the enemy's force.

I beg to thank Major Bruce, Commanding Bengal Horse Artillery; Lieutenant Cuthbert, Royal Artillery; Captain Hyam, Commanding three Companies Her Majesty's 23rd Regiment; Captain Jones, Commanding the Cavalry; Lieutenant Chamberlain, Commanding Police Infantry; and Lieutenant Drummond, Commanding Cavalry on the right; likewise Major Miller, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, Commanding Rear Guard and Captain Lyons, Her Majesty's 20th Regiment, whom I left in front during my absence in charge of a large portion of the baggage, which he protected, driving some of the enemy from a small village in his vicinity; also my Brigade Major, Captain O'Neill, Her Majesty's 20th Regiment; and my Orderly Officer, Ensign Maxwell, Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, who were particularly useful.

My thanks are due to Major Bulwer, Her Majesty's 23rd Regiment, Commanding the escort of hackeries in my rear, for the zeal and activity he evinced in pushing forward to join my Column. Captain Jones brings to my notice the good conduct on the field of the 3rd Squadron 1st Sikh Irregular Cavalry, which charged and took two of the enemy's guns.

No. 624 of 1859.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the subjoined Despatch from Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding the Goruckpore District, reporting an action with the enemy at Doomureeagunj, on the 26th November 1858.

TO MAJOR NORMAN,
Depy. Adjt.-Genl. of the Army, with the Commander-in-Chief,
Camp Doomureeagunj,
South bank of the River Raptac.

The 28th November 1858.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-

Chief, that I marched on the morning of the 26th instant, from Blunpore Thannah for Doomureeagunj 18 miles distant, with the Head Quarters of the Goruckpore Field Force. On the line of march, information was brought that the Rebel force, of about 1,000 men, under Mahommed Nuwas, nephew of Mahommed Hooosen, who had held Doomureeagunj for some time, was still there, in groves and villages, about a mile South of the place. As I neared the place where a portion of the Rebel force was said to be, some distance to the left of the road, and preparing to move off to the westward, I ordered to the front two guns of the Horse Battery under Captain Cadell, whom I had called up to join me, by a forced march, the previous evening; 200 of Her Majesty's 18th Light Infantry under Captain Browne, and 100 of the Regiment of Perozepore under Lieutenant-Colonel Brasyer, C. B., and the chief portion of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry under Major Richardson, who were in front of the Column; and directed this party to move off to the left in the direction the enemy were reported to be. The guns and Cavalry were pushed on at once, and Captain Cadell carried along his guns with great spirit and rapidity, with the Cavalry. While I was proceeding with this party, I received an urgent message from the Officer of the Advance Guard of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, that a large body of Infantry and Sowars were advancing down upon us, from the Doomurecagunj Road. I immediately returned to order up the other two Horse Battery Guns, 100 of Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, 30 Marines and Seamen of the Pearl's Naval Brigade, 50 of the Regiment of Ferozepore, and some of the 8th Madras Cavalry from the rear of the Column. This party, under the immediate Command of Major Tyler, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, had not advanced far up the road, when I discovered the enemy had broken and fled, some towards Doomurecagunj, where it appears they got over the Raptée, and part up the river bank to the left. In the meantime, the first party on the left had come up into action with the enemy, rapidly driving them out of heavy cultivation and groves towards the West and the winding river to the North. A small gun with limber was captured, and about 80 killed; nearly all Sepoys cut down by the Cavalry and shot by the guns and musketry, Captain Cadell's guns doing heavy execution, besides a number shot and drowned in the Raptée; and by reports since received, the enemy must have perished in great numbers in their endeavours to cross the river, for a large party were driven up the river bank by a reinforcement I was bringing up to the Troops on the left, as, from the fire continuing, I was apprehensive that Bala Rao had pushed up some Troops from Bithoriah Ghat, which had not crossed the Raptée. A party with one gun came up the river on the opposite bank and opened fire on our Troops, but Captain Cadell opening upon them, their fire soon ceased.

2. I regret very much to report that Captain Giffard, Second in Command, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, was killed, being shot while gallantly leading a charge. This excellent Officer is a great loss to his Regiment and the Service.

3. During my temporary absence, Lieutenant-Colonel Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, and Officiating Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, took the immediate Command on the left of the field, with his usual ability and judgment. Lieutenant-Colonel Cox lost his Charger, shot in the leg, bone broken and obliged to be destroyed.

4. My Brigade Major, Captain Morgan, was present in the field, affording every assistance; also Captain Sotheby, C. B., and my acting A. D. C., the Honorable V. A. Montague, and Lieutenant Bolton, Sub-Assistant Commissary General. Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner, was present in the field, using every exertion to procure intelligence.

5. We had been out since the morning, nearly nine hours, I ordered the Troops to return and encamp at Doomurecagunj, where the enemy had some entrenchments and very strong ground, and could have caused us great annoyance and delay if they had held the place with any boldness.

6. I beg to recommend to the particular favor of the Commander-in-Chief, the Officers and Men of all arms of the Force, for their gallantry and cheerful zealous exertions, under many hours of fatigue.

7. On the afternoon of the 26th, I sent an express ordering Captain Howlett, 27th Madras Native Infantry, with his Detachment, about 500 strong, posted at Intwa, 12 miles North of Doomurecagunj, to march that night to join me, his Detachment being weak, and from its distant position from me, inviting attack. He arrived yesterday morning, at day break, and is posted close to the bank on the other side the river Raptée, covered and protected by two 8-pounder Guns, and Rocket of the Pearl's Naval Brigade, which I ordered into position, at the ghat, on the afternoon of the 26th instant.

8. Every exertion is being made to procure boats for a bridge, to be ready to cross over, and act in co-operation, according to such orders as I may receive from Major-General Sir Hope Grant, K. C. B., but will attack and disperse any body of Rebels to be got at in our vicinity, as at Intwa now held by them.

9. On the afternoon of the 22nd November, in Camp at Captaingunj, intelligence was received that Bala Rao had left Bungeon, and Mahomed Hossein for the North, in the direction of Bansee. At 4 o'clock the next morning, I marched for Doomurecagunj, arriving in time, on the 26th, to prevent my Detachment at Intwa being obliged to fall back, and the probable advance of Bala Rao on the town of Bansee. He is now with his army at Kumar and Pokur Bitwa, near Biskohur, on the borders of Oudh, with intention, it is supposed, of moving on to Toolseepore, where another Rebel Force, of about 3,000 or 4,000, is said to be collected.

10. I beg to annex a Casualty List, which I am happy to say is light.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that I left Nawabgunge on the 3rd instant, and marched to Bungan, allowing the Field Force, under Colonel Lord Mark Kerr, to march at the same time to Bhanpore Thanah, on my right front.

On the 6th instant, I marched to Muchlegoon, where it was reported that the Gonda Rajah's Troops were entrenched. On arrival there, I found that they had all left that morning in the direction of Bunkussea; but whilst proceeding to reconnoitre, I suddenly came upon their main body, (said to be about 4,000) both Cavalry and Infantry, on the edge of the jungle, from which they opened fire with 8 guns upon us. I immediately brought up the 2 guns of the picquet under Lieutenant Maxwell, Royal Horse Artillery, which speedily silenced one of the guns, and being joined soon afterwards by the other guns and some Infantry, I advanced the latter in skirmishing order to clear the jungle, the Rebels' guns having by this time ceased firing.

We found 2 guns abandoned on the edge of the jungle, and the Infantry passing on, pressed through the jungle for about 2 miles; but the Rebels having retreated with great celerity, they were not able to overtake a great number.

It appeared from the accounts of prisoners, that they had been completely surprised, and were not aware of our approach.

This morning I continued my march to Bunkussea, the principal Fort of the Gonda Rajah, which was found completely deserted.

Five brass guns were found in the Fort, which is now being destroyed by the Engineers.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for the information of the Major-General Commanding the Division, the following report of the operations of the Detachment under my Command, since marching from Hummaerpore

II. Agreeably to instructions received from Headquarters, the Field Detachment as per margin, left Hummaerpore, on the 28th ultimo, with a view of checking the depredations of the outlaw Hurjar Sing, who was said to have made prisoners of some Zemindars, and was looting certain villages on the banks of the river Deesaun.

III. We halted on the 30th at Jullapore, to allow of a party of Her Majesty's 43rd Light Infantry reaching us from Calpee, and they, strength as per margin, joined us on that date. We then proceeded as far

Madras Artillery.

67 Non-Commissioned Rank and File, under Lieuts. Bratt and McGuire.
Asst. Surgeon Heard in Medical charge of the Field Detachment, joined on the 1st instant, and accompanied the Force.

South as Raat as I was informed the Rebels were marching for that place. On arriving there I learned that they were encamped near a village on the right bank of the "Dessaun," and we therefore pushed on the same afternoon to this Camp which we reached on the 3rd instant.

IV. At about 5 A. M., on the morning of the 4th, I left a strong guard of the 50th Madras Native Infantry to guard the standing Camp, and with the Guns and Cavalry, Detachment 43rd Light Infantry, and 110 Bayonets of the 50th Madras Native Infantry, marched to attack the enemy in his very strong position near Tola Kanjharan. On nearing this place, I halted the Troops and proceeded with Captain Sawers and Lieutenant Johnson to reconnoitre, when we were fired on from the village by what afterwards proved to be a picket of the enemy, which retreated as we advanced. Seeing a large body of the enemy on an eminence at about 1,000 yards distance, on our left front, the guns were brought up, and a few rounds of spherical case caused them to shift their position. Having cleared the village, we came to ground, which extended for a considerable distance, in which it was quite impossible for either Cavalry or Artillery to act, being a perfect net-work of deep ravines, covered with jungle, in the midst of which, near the river Dessaun, was the enemy's Camp; leaving therefore the Artillery with a small guard of Infantry and the Cavalry for their protection, we proceeded across this extremely difficult ground, covered by a skirmishing party of the 50th Madras Native Infantry, on both flanks, exchanging shots with the enemy from time to time.

V. After about an hour's march we arrived at the river, just in time to see the last of the Rebels crossing to the opposite side, the Enfields of the 43rd now made some excellent practice both at the crossing the river, and subsequently in following the Rebels through the jungles on the other side. The enemy here lost both men and horses, the exact number of which could not be ascertained, owing to the density of the jungle, and the depth of the ravines; several horses and ponies were captured and a quantity of miscellaneous baggage also fell into our hands, showing how hard the enemy had been pressed, and in what haste he had retreated. The jungle and steep ascents alone saved him from destruction, for the Europeans could not make way through such ground, to keep pace with Natives, who moreover knew every path. So as the day was far advanced, and as I considered that a good blow had already been struck, and as moreover the men were much fatigued, I sounded the assembly, and we returned to Tola Kanjharan, where I halted an hour to refresh, and returned to Camp, where we arrived at 4 P. M.

VI. In conclusion, I desire to record my sense of the cheerful zeal with which the duties of a very hard day were performed by all ranks. It was matter of common remark how well the skirmishing party of the 50th Regiment Madras Native Infantry did their work, and I attribute this, in a great measure, to the way in which they were led by Lieutenants Greenway and Hay; the 43rd of course, performed as they always have done.

VII. I would also beg to remark particularly on the great assistance I at all times received from Captain Sawers, Commanding the Humnecorpore Military Police, and deputed by Mr. Freeling the Collector to act for him, in the way of collecting intelligence, &c., and I consider that it has been owing to the constant zeal, activity, intelligence and foresight of this valuable Officer, that we have been enabled to make the power of the Government felt by the Rebels. On one occasion Captain Sawers, accompanied by a party of his Sowars, rode 30 miles (out and back) after a march, and learning that he would also march the following morning, solely for the purpose of obtaining the information, upon which I subsequently acted. Captain Sawers also accompanied the Infantry to the attack of the enemy through the broken ground. I am happy to say that there were no Casualties on our side. The enemy was variously computed at from 3 to 500, of whom about 40 were Sowars, and from the uniform buttons on the clothing that fell into our hands, it is evident that there were Sepoys of the Punjab Police and Sindia's Force among them.

I have, &c.,

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Brigadier Commanding, that according to orders received on the 4th instant, I marched that night on the village of Larcherra, with the 12th Royal Lancers.

Troops as per margin. On arrival at Cossepoora, about two miles from our destination at N. A. M. on the 5th instant, I received information, that the main body of the Mutineers and Rebels, about 2,000 strong, under Chatter Singh, was encamped on the left bank of the "Dewsaun" river, on the heights above Larcherra. I pushed rapidly on. On arriving opposite the village, I directed Lieutenant Pope, Commanding Madras Artillery, to throw a couple of shells in the direction of the enemy's advanced picket, at the same time sending a Troop of the 12th Lancers across the river to cut off any who might endeavour to escape into the open country. The village was deserted. I then passed over with the remaining Troop of the Lancers and the guns: finding from the nature of the ground that it was impossible to act without Infantry, I recrossed and encamped about a mile from the river bank.

Finding themselves unmolested, a party came down to the water-side, and commenced firing on our grass-cutters and horse-keepers, one of whom, I regret to say, was killed. Early the following morning, being reinforced by a Company of the 3rd Madras Europeans under Lieutenant Burge, I sent a party of them on elephants across the ford, under cover of the guns, the remainder with the Cavalry crossing at the same time a little higher up. When these were all over, I directed the guns to follow, and immediately threw the Infantry into the jungle in skirmishing order, to sweep as far as possible the enemy's position, the Cavalry and Artillery moving along the valley, to cut off retreat in that direction. The Infantry dashed in most gallantly, and soon exchanged through the brushwood; not having a sufficient Force to cover both sides of the hill at one time, the greater number escaped and crossed the river, as was afterwards ascertained, in the direction of Alipora, with a loss however of between 60 and 70 killed. A quantity of powder and cartridge paper was taken by the 3rd Madras Europeans in a building above the village.

I beg to bring to your notice, Captain Clifton, 12th Lancers, in immediate command of Cavalry and Horse Artillery, who carried out my orders most fully and judiciously; as well as Lieutenant Pope, Madras Artillery, Lieutenant Burge and Wetherall, 3rd Madras Europeans, who led their men in the jungle with the greatest gallantry; to Lieutenant Hunt, 12th Lancers, my Adjutant, my best thanks are also due; as well as Mr. Griffiths, Deputy Collector, through whose information I was enabled to discover the Rebels' position. We received intelligence, in the course of the day, that the enemy as a body were completely broken up, none remaining within 15 miles of Camp.

I am happy to say we had no Casualties.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major-General Commanding the Field Force, M. D. A., but whose address at present I do not know, that on my arrival at Teekree on the 23rd instant, I received information that the Rebels under Tantia Topce and the Rao Sahib were at Kurgaon, about twenty miles East of the Grand Trunk Road, and thirty miles from the Sindwah ghaut. On the following morning, I moved to Grelwana sixteen miles from Sindwah, so that I could cut them off from that route if they made for Khandeish, or move rapidly back along the main road if they tried to turn my left flank.

2. On the morning of the 24th instant, I was joined by 50 men of Her Majesty's 71st Highland Light Infantry under Lieutenant Lewis, who had been brought 70 miles in thirty hours by Lieutenant Barras, of the Camel Corps, Captain Ballard, Assistant Quarter Master General, and Captain Helbert, Assistant Agent to the Governor General, with 20 Sikhs and a hundred of H. H. Holkar's Horse, joined at the same time, also Lieutenant Montrion, 25th Regiment Light Infantry as Interpreter.

3. During the forenoon the Rebels sent a patrol of 200 horse towards Sindwah, and another about the same strength towards Than, six miles North of my position along the road, making it doubtful which route the main body would take. The latter party cut the Telegraph wire to Indore, plundered some carts, and were there at nightfall. The reports brought in by the scouts led to the supposition that the Rebels would not attempt the Bindwah ghaut, but move North-West crossing had not moved, to attack the next day at Kurraon; the remainder of my Force, consisting of 1 Subaltern and 60 Rank and File, I left to guard the encampment.

4. On arrival at Than, we learnt that the whole of the Rebels had passed that place during the night, towards Rajpore and Bhurwannee, and I determined to pursue at once, the traces of their gun wheels and elephants serving to guide us on the proper line. After eight miles rapid marching, we overtook the rear guard of the Rebels streaming out of Rajpore; I allowed them five minutes to clear the town, for if they had attempted to hold it, my small Force could never have dislodged them. I then pursued at a rapid trot with the Camel Corps and horsemen, desiring the Infantry, who were on foot, to follow as quickly as they could. The road lay through a jungle in which the Camels could not move, but as I had no baggage I resolved to disregard all stragglers who took refuge in it, and push steadily on their rear, passing quantities of abandoned stores, bullocks and baggage. After about five miles of this pursuit, during which several Rebels were cut down by the Sikh Horse, and shot by the Highlanders, we could see that the Rebels as they arrived at a nullah, which crossed the road at right angles some way ahead, formed upon its further bank; when five hundred yards from this spot. I dismounted the Infantry who were on Camels, and was proceeding to attack, when to my surprise the remainder of my men, who were on foot, appeared a few hundred yards in rear, having kept up with the Camels at more than five miles an hour. Joined by them I advanced, but the Rebels hardly waited to exchange shots; so the men remounted their Camels and we continued the pursuit for a couple of miles, when the Rebels again appeared, formed up in a strong position, where the road ascended the slope, lined on both sides with thick jungles, and was overlooked by a rocky ridge which covered it, and which they lined with musketry, placing their two guns in the centre of the road. I sent out skirmishers and formed the remainder as well as the ground could permit; the enemy opened with musketry and grape, and as their position could not be turned, and every delay might give them confidence, I ordered the men to charge, who rushed straight along the road on their guns, which were carried with a loud cheer, and the Rebels lost heart, and fled.

5. I attempted to resume the pursuit, but soon had to halt the men, who were exhausted by the heat. Captain Ballard and Lieutenant Bonnor followed for two or three miles, with some Sikhs and Holkar's men, but as the whole road lay through jungle, I ordered them to rejoin, and when the men had refreshed themselves, we returned with the captured guns to Rajpore, to which place I had sent back to order the baggage by a short route.

6. Before concluding this Despatch, I deem it a duty I owe to the Soldiers of the different Detachments, composing my small Force, to express my most marked approbation of their conduct, both during the march and whilst under fire, testing, as it did, their discipline and gallantry to the utmost. I consider myself particularly fortunate, in having had the advantage of Captain Ballard's valuable assistance and advice throughout the day's operations, and I take this opportunity of acknowledging his unceasing zeal and exertions. Captain Helbert's unfatigued accuracy of information, as to the intended movements of the Rebels, removed many difficulties, which otherwise would have occurred.

7. The Casualties of the enemy, as nearly as could be ascertained, amounted to about 70 killed and wounded. I am happy to state that the Casualties of the Force under my command were but few. Lieutenant and Adjutant Humsfrey's 92nd Highlanders, whilst gallantly pursuing five or six men who had been serving the guns, was attacked by their Commandant and severely wounded; the remaining Casualties were confined to one Soldier of Her Majesty's 71st Highland Light Infantry wounded, and one missing and two wounded, and two missing belonging to Holkar's and the Agent's Escort.

8. Captain Helbert begs to recommend the under-mentioned "Commandant Bheon Gir," of His Highness' Holkar's Horse, to the favorable notice of the Major-General Commanding Malwa Division Artillery, and Woodie Major Jodh Singh, of the Agent's Escort, the former as Commandant of His Highness' Holkar's Horse, the latter belonging to the Agent's Escort, as having behaved with great gallantry, having been wounded in the mêlée.

9. Lieutenant Barron, Commanding Camel Corps, a most zealous and energetic Officer; Captain Langston, 4th Bombay Rifles; Captain Newell, Her Majesty's 92nd Highlanders; Lieutenant Lewis, 71st Highland Light Infantry, Commanding Detachments of the 92nd and 71st respectively; as also to Lieutenant Bonnor, a Volunteer of the 9th Native Infantry, afforded me most ready and able assistance; my thanks are also due to Lieutenant Montrou, 25th Native Light Infantry, attached to the Force as Interpreter, and to Assistant Surgeon Don, for the manner in which they performed the duties of their respective appointments.

FROM MAJOR-GENL. MICHEL, C.B., COMD. MALWA DIV.,

Allahabad, Camp Mhow, 4th December 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for submission to His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief in India, a despatch from Brigadier Smith, received yesterday, No. 104 of November 20th, detailing the successful result of a surprise on the Rebel camp of Maun Sing near the village of Koondrye, in the Gwalior Territory.

The surprise appears to have been very well managed; and I solicit His Lordship's favourable notice of the affair, and that he will be pleased to pay such regard to the Brigadier's recommendations as he may deem just.

No. 104 of 1858.

TO THE ADJT. ADJT. GENL. MALWA DIVISION,

Mhow,

Camp Mungrowlie, 20th November 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to state, for the information of the Major-General Commanding the Malwa Division, that in accordance with instructions conveyed to me in letter No. 411, dated Bhelsa, November 1st 1858, and in consequence of information received by me of the intended movements of the Rebels upon Mungrowlie and the fort of Malharghur, I marched on the 10th to Gadowlie, in order to cover and protect the above-mentioned places. I have since ascertained that the intention of the Rebels to plunder those places, and take possession of the guns at Malharghur was prevented by my advance.

2. On the night of the 12th, I ascertained that the Rebel force under Maun Sing, reported at 3,000 three thousand men, composed of the late Gwalior Contingent troops, Bengal sepoy, and his own followers, recrossed the Betwa and reached the small fort of Gurpairah.

3. I marched in that direction on the morning of the 13th, but finding the neighbourhood of the fort deserted, I halted to breakfast at the village of Gopal-lee, on the river Molah.

4. I then, accompanied by my Staff, reconnoitred the ground beyond the river, and found it covered with dense jungle, and intersected with deep nullahs, and did not perceive any traces of the enemy in that direction; about 2 P. M., having heard the Rebel force had moved off to Uttakairah, I marched in that direction.

5. I halted for the night and bivouacked at Burkairah 3 miles from Uttakairah; as I did not allow any fires to be lighted, there was little opportunity of preparing food. I cannot speak too highly of the cheerful endurance of fatigue and hardship evinced, during this day, by both the European and Native Troops.

6. Hearing during the night that the enemy had left Uttakairah and proceeded to Koondrye, I marched for that village at 3-30 A. M., on the 14th.

7. I did not allow any trumpets or bugles to sound on the march, and coming to Koondrye just as day was breaking, we halted for a few minutes in rear of the village, and some jowar fields which served to conceal us from the view of the Rebels and formed the Troops present in the field, as per margin, as follows, viz.: 95th Regiment in Column of sections, a Company 100 yards distant protecting their right flank. The 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry in quarter distance columns in eachellon to the left rear of the 95th, leaving the road between the two Regiments clear for the guns to advance, as the ground on either side was bad, and unsuited for their passage. The 1st Lancers had orders to form in rear of the right flank of the 95th, and the 8th Hussars in rear of left flank. 10th Native Infantry, when the Infantry formed to the front. I placed Lieutenant-Colonel the Honourable F. A. Thesiger, 95th Regiment, the Senior Infantry Officer in command of the Infantry, and sent to order up the Artillery by the road.

3rd Troop Bombay H. A.
8 guns and 80 men, under command of Lieut.-Colonel Blake.
H. M's. 8th Hussars, 85 Sa-
loes, under command of Col.
Dechille.
1st Bombay Lancers, 42 men under command of Lieut.-
Col. Curtis.
H. M's. 95th Regt. men under command of Lieut. Col.
Baines.
10th Regt. H. N. f. men under command of Capt. Pelly, Madd's Horse 12 men.
The rest of the Force being either sick or on baggage guard.

8. We then moved forward, our advance guard, consisting of one (1) Company of the 95th Regiment, and two (2) Companies 10th Native Infantry, under Major Vialla, 95th Regiment, in skirmishing order, advanced on the right front through some jowarrie fields 6 feet high, and commenced firing; when within about 100 yards of the enemy, Colonel Raines, detaching a Company to assist, on coming in view of the Rebel camp, and as the ground opened the Infantry deployed, the 10th Native Infantry being in short echelon with the 95th.

9. The Artillery under Colonel Blake galloped to the front by the road, formed line, and came into action on the left of the 95th, commencing with a few round shot, and then with shrapnel at 5 or 600 yards fired into the largest masses which had collected after their sudden surprise; the shells bursting in the midst of the enemy must have caused numerous casualties. In the meantime the first Lancers under Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Curtis had conformed to the movements of the Infantry, by advancing in column of Troops, and on approaching the enemy formed line to the right flank; the 1st Lancers consisted of two very small Troops, converted into Squadron by forming single rank, the total number of men under Regimental command being 42. The 8th Hussars having only 85 sabres present, formed in front of the left of the line.

10. A rapid flight now commenced, and I gave the order for the Cavalry to pursue with one Division of guns; in compliance with this order Colonel Blake, with the right Division under Lieutenant Leecoq, followed at a gallop, coming into action within close short range, followed by shrapnel, the Division continued in pursuit with the Cavalry coming into action whenever opportunity offered. The centre and left Divisions of Colonel Blake's Troop proceeded with the Infantry and followed at a slower pace, the horses of these Divisions being much done up with the long marches when with the Major-General.

11. Colonel DeSalis having formed a third of the small body he had at his disposal in reserve, which remained within reach of the guns, pursued with the remainder in skirmishing order at a gallop, giving orders to his men not to fire except at close quarters. In consequence of this order, and the effective pursuit of the Hussars, led by Colonel DeSalis, notwithstanding the very unfavourable nature of the ground which was covered with low jungle, a large number of the enemy in this part of the field were sabred and shot.

12. Colonel Curtis led the 1st Lancers in pursuit, at a gallop, of that portion of the enemy which fled in front of the right of the line, and disposed of all he could come up with, but a low and afterwards a thick jungle favoured the fugitives.

13. Colonel Raines brought his men steadily and rapidly forward through some difficult ground, disposing of all he encountered on the right, but in consequence of the principal masses of the enemy taking a direction to the left, the Hussars and 10th Native Infantry had greater opportunities, which they fully took advantage of.

14. Captain Pelly with 10th Regiment Native Infantry, by order of Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon'ble F. A. Theiger, having moved towards the left, deployed, and forming in skirmishing order with supports, pursued the men moving at the double when the ground admitted of their doing so, and shot and bayoneted a large number of the enemy who had hidden from the Hussars, and were taking shelter in the nullahs or amongst the jungles.

15. At my request, early in the action, Colonel Curtis desired a Havildar Major of his Regiment (Shaik Abdoolah) who had seen Maun Sing at Powrie, to accompany a few of "Maude's Horse," some 50 men under Jamadar Beream Sing, for the purpose of capturing if possible the Rebel leader. They used every exertion; but in consequence of his rapid flight on horse-back, could not succeed in this object. I beg to bring the conduct of the Jamadar and Havildar Major, and the men who were with him, to the favourable notice of the Major-General Commanding; they did most excellent service.

16. We pursued for about (6) six or (7) seven miles, when seeing that what remained of the enemy scattered over a large extent of front, of which we could only embrace a very small portion with our very small force of Cavalry, and consequently only reached a few stragglers. I wounded the "re-cult" and collected the Force under some trees near the village of Rajpore till our baggage came up.

17. I have taken much pains to ascertain the loss of the enemy, and I feel convinced I am under the mark when I estimate it at over six hundred (600.)

18. Lieutenant-Colonel the Honorable F. A. Theiger, Her Majesty's 95th Regiment, in command of the Infantry, was most active and successful in carrying out my instructions.

19. I received every assistance, as I always do, from Colonel DeSalis, Commanding Her Majesty's 8th Hussars; Lieutenant-Colonel Blake, Commanding 3rd Troop Horse Artillery; Lieutenant-Colonel Curtis, Commanding 1st Bombay Lancers; Lieutenant-Colonel Raines, Commanding 95th Regiment; and Captain Pelly, Commanding 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry; and also from Cornet Goldsworthy, Her Majesty's 8th Hussars, my Brigade Major, who, as usual, performed his duties to my entire satisfaction.

20. Lieutenant Hanbury, Her Majesty's 8th Hussars; Lieutenant Mayne, 1st Bombay Lancers; Lieutenant Rawlins, Her Majesty's 95th Regiment; and Lieutenant Pierce, 10th Regiment Native Infantry, acted as my Orderly Officers for the day, and gave me great assistance in carrying my orders.

21. I trust the Major-General will allow me to take this opportunity of acknowledging the ready and most valuable assistance which Colonel Curtis, 1st Bombay Lancers, and in his absence Captain Loch of the same Regiment, has on all occasions given me, placing his men at my disposal whenever required, for information and difficult services, in patrolling and gaining information of the movements of the enemy, those services involving great fatigue and much risk. I have also to acknowledge similar services rendered me by Captain Pelly, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, valuable information having on several occasions been obtained by the Native Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men of the 10th Regiment Native Infantry. I beg to enclose for the favorable consideration of the Major-General a list of the Native Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men of the above Regiments, who have rendered themselves the most conspicuous.

22. But I attribute our success in this surprise to the indefatigable exertions and great zeal and intelligence of Captain Bolton, Assistant Quarter Master General, in gaining information of the movements and position of the enemy; he has been on all occasions most active and successful in this matter under most difficult circumstances, and with small means at his disposal, as well as in the discharge of other duties of his Department.

23. I am happy to say the Casualties were very trifling, as will appear by the return; this may to a certain extent be accounted for by the fact of the surprise being so sudden and complete that the enemy's matchlockmen had not time to light their matches and consequently could only use their muskets or words.

I have, &c.,

FROM THE GAZETTE;
GOVERNOR GENERAL'S CAMP.

ALLAHABAD, JANUARY 17, 1859.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

Military Department,
Allahabad, the 17th January 1859.

No. 653 of 1859.—His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General cannot allow the Officers and Men forming the Naval Brigade of Her Majesty's Ship Pearl to pass through Allahabad on their return to their Ship, without expressing his acknowledgment of the excellent service which they have rendered to the State.

Disembarked on the 12th of September 1857, they have for fifteen months formed a main part of the small Force to which the security of the wide District of Goruckpore, and of the country adjoining it, has been entrusted, and which has held during that time important advanced posts exposed to constant attack from the strongholds of the Rebels.

The duty has been arduous and harassing; but it has been cheerfully and thoroughly performed, and the discipline of the Pearl's Brigade has been admirable. The Gazettes of the 9th and 23rd March, 27th April, 11th May, 22nd June, 6th and 13th July, 13th August, 12th and 19th October, 23rd and 26th November 1858, and 11th January 1859, have shown that when the Goruckpore Field Force has been engaged the Brigade has signally distinguished itself.

The Governor General cordially thanks Captain E. Sothely, C. B., and his brave Officers and Men for the valuable assistance which they have given to the Army in Bengal, and he is glad to think that they do not quit the scene of their services without the satisfaction of seeing peace restored to the rich Districts which they have protected.

To MAJOR NORMAN,

Depy. Adj't. Genl. of the Army,Head Quarters.Camp Dumeerashgunja, North Bank, River Raptée,The 5th December 1858.

Sir,

I HAVE the honor to acquaint you for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, I received intelligence from Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner, on the evening of the 2nd instant, that the Nazim Mahomed Hossain, with his force of between 2,000 and 3,000 men and six guns, had moved up to the North from Bungaon, and had arrived the day before at Bururiah near the Raptée, and 9 miles West of my Camp, then on the South bank of the Raptée.

The next morning at dawn, I marched with the chief portion of the Head Quarters Goruckpore Field Force, about 850 men of all arms, and six guns, under command of the Captain Sotheby, C. B., Commanding the Poor's Naval Brigade, 2 guns M. Train Howitzers, and Lt. Pym's Detachment of Royal Marines.

Captain Cadell, Comdg. Horse Battery, 4 guns.

Major Richardson, Commanding Beng. Yeo. Cav.

Major Tyler, Commanding Detachment H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry.

Lt.-Col. Brassey, C. B., Comdg. Regt. of Ferozepore.

Lieut. Shaw, Comdg. Detachment 27th Regt. Madras Native Infantry.

Officers noted in the margin, for Bururiah, which we reached about 11 o'clock A. M. The enemy did not appear to expect us, but their outlying picket gave them early warning. I at once formed line, with skirmishers out, and immediately advanced to the attack. The enemy were principally in two large woods, with the Soanee River running close to the wood on their left, with heavy forest and jungle close on the other side. The enemy opened fire of guns and musketry on our line, but were rapidly replied to from Captain Sotheby's two guns in the centre, and from Captain Cadell's two Horse guns on the left, and the two guns under Captain Highmore on the right, and from the skirmishers. The enemy early gave way and were greatly favored by the large woods and cultivations, enabling them to get their guns over a ford of the Soanee, on their left, into the forest; other Infantry and Sowars retired Westward, fording the river considerably higher up. The enemy were driven out of both woods and pursued for nearly two miles front of our line on the right, crossed afterwards at the same place where the enemy had crossed their guns, driving some of their Infantry and Sowars well into the forest. About a mile beyond the two large woods first occupied by the enemy we came on a bend of the river Soanee, the enemy keeping up a fire of musketry from the thickets, but were soon silenced by the Naval Brigade and Madras Horse Battery Guns, and the rifle and musketry firing. A ford was found to our left, and I ordered Lieutenant Colonel Brassey with a Division of his Sikhs and two Companies of the 13th Light Infantry under Captain Brown, to push over and clear a village and the nearest part of the forest covered at the ford, where the country was more open, by Captain Sotheby's two guns and a party of Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, while Captain Cadell, with his guns from the right, fired over the river and covered the movement, driving out and dispersing the enemy in that direction; the party having effected the object, was to return without delay. This was most effectually and ably carried out by Lieutenant-Colonel Brassey, and the enemy completely driven back and dispersed in retreat.

My best thanks are due to the Officers I have named; Captain Sotheby was most zealous and active, pressing well forward with his guns; and Captain Cadell, Commanding No. 2 Madras Horse Light Field Battery, who has lately joined my force, I have found a very zealous and active Officer, always quick, and ready with his guns whenever their fire could be made effective; also to all the Officers and Men of all arms engaged for their very zealous, active, and cheerful services throughout many hours of considerable fatigue; and to Doctor Young, 18th Light Infantry; Doctor Garden, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry; and Doctor Dickinson, Regiment of Ferozepore. My best thanks are also due to Captain Morgan, Brigade Major; Lieutenant-Colonel Cox, Officiating Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master General; the Hon'ble V. A. Montague, Royal Navy, my Acting Aide-de-Camp, and Lieutenant Bolton, Officiating Sub-Assistant Commissary General, who afforded me most useful service in conveying orders and instructions; they are also due to Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner, who was present in the field throughout the day, and obtaining all the intelligence possible to be procured.

It was difficult to ascertain the loss of the enemy but it was probable about a hundred; several of the Infantry and Sowars and their Horses were killed by the party on the right of the line, when they first got to the edge of the forest, (Private John Bulger, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, suddenly coming on four of the enemy in the wood, shot one, and bayoneted three) and during an advance and at the time, and after Lieutenant-Colonel Brazer crossed the river at the close of the action.

I beg to recommend all engaged to the particular favor of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief.

I hope this total defeat and rout of Mahomed Hoosein and his force, before he could form a junction with Bala Rao, or arrange for any combined movement of their forces, will be attended with the best results, keeping the enemy to the Westward; and it so alarmed Bala Rao, who was on the other side of the river Raptce, in close hearing of our guns, he marched off from Kumsar, that night, towards the North-West beyond Biskohur, out of the Banase District into that of Toolaseepore, to Pipurce. Mahomed Hoosein has gone Westward to Atrowhah.

I am happy to say we have none killed; there are 12 wounded. A Casualty List is duly annexed. I returned with the Troops to Camp at 3 p. m.

My Force is crossing the Raptce to-day by bridge of boats, and will be over by the evening.

SIR,

however without considerable loss of animals and baggage.

In continuation of my report to you from "Ooreyah," I beg to state that, yesterday the 10th instant, hearing at 7 P. M. from Lieutenant Angelo, whom I had detached with a patrol towards "Etawah," that he had fallen in with large bodies of the enemy, with 10 elephants and a great number of camels laden with plunder, and had captured a gun of Native make, I despatched orders to Lieutenant Thain, who had joined the force with Mr. Hume, Collector of Etawah, to the North of "Puhpoond," to move obliquely upon the Etawah road, and marched myself at midnight along it. Ten miles from "Ooreyah" I came upon Lieutenant Angelo, and detached him to the left with the whole of Towannah Horse to follow the enemy's trail; while I marched 5 miles further along the road, and at dawn of day struck to the left down a road which another large body of Rebels had followed. After trotting a few miles, shots being heard on our right I rode for the spot, and found that Lieutenant Angelo had crossed my line of march, and was at the point of passage.

The road was a dry water-course, at the bottom of one of the ravines which in great numbers intersect this District. The enemy in large numbers were scattered over the plain, on the opposite bank, with camels, elephants and many horses. The banks of the river and sandbanks were studded with horses and camels, hopelessly struggling in the quick-sand, many of them having nearly disappeared in the two or three hours I was on the bank. This bank was strewed with bales of goods and various articles, with many saddles and swords and some fire arms; camels and horses in considerable numbers were captured.

I should not have hesitated to follow but for the state of the opposite banks, as I felt sure I should have lost many horses. The enemy moved off pretty rapidly; they appear to have been very leisurely in their movements across the Doab up to "Puhpoond," where, Mr. Hume informs me, that they received a letter from Cawnpore informing them that a Force had marched to cut them off from "Ooreyah Ghat;" upon this they left in great haste. This accounts for the alarm shown at Lieutenant Angelo's appearance, when crossing the Ooreyah and Etawah Road. They had attacked the Force with Mr. Hume with great determination on the 9th, and been repulsed with great gallantry.

The Force under me has captured in all about 40 camels and 800 horses and ponies. The losses in the river must have been large, and many men and women are reported to have been drowned. Considering the nature of the ghat, and that the passage was mostly effected at night in great haste, this must have been the case.

My own Casualties were two men wounded.

The details of this Force, as per margin, deserve great credit for the distance marched. Captain Chapman's Police having marched 140 miles in 98 hours, and the Ghums and Towannah Horse 118 in 86 hours.

I had the advantage of being accompanied by Major Wilson, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General.

I beg to add that, up to 7 P. M. on the 10th, all my information showed the enemy to be about "Puhpoond," and forced me to be cautious about opening the Ooreyah Ghat, great numbers of animals are reported to have been abandoned in their haste, and to have been taken by the villagers.

Amongst the property left on this bank was a desk containing a seal and the miniature of a child, the personal property of Feroze Shah.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) P. E. HERBERT, Brigadier.

Mr. Hume being of opinion that the enemy might still be intercepted between the Jumna and Chumbul, I marched to Lukman this morning to support him. A portion of my Cavalry with him have crossed the Jumna at a good Ferry near here; they will cross the Chumbul for a last effort to intercept him, as he was reported to be halting on the other side of the Chumbul this morning, imagining himself secure. I was unwilling to leave the Doab myself upon the chances, but thought myself justified in giving this much assistance.

The seal I refer to above, has been ascertained to be the official seal of Feroze Shah.

(Signed) P. E. HERBERT, Brigadier.

P. S.—December 12th, near Lukman.

TO THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF.

Bivouac near Lukman, 12th December 1858.

SIR,

I BEG to state for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that I have halted here this day (Sunday) and intend marching for Cawnpore to-morrow via Puhpoond and Russelabad. Mr. Hume, Collector of Etawah, has crossed the Chumbul with the Force which accompanies him. I reinforced him with 170 Allahabad Police and the Oudh Mounted Police. The rest return with me. He captured one of the enemy's stragglers, who confirms the reports about their losses, both in the fight with Mr. Hume and also by drowning in the passage of the river. A circumstance which was most unfortunate has only just come to my knowledge. Lieutenant Angelo, when he first came upon them about mid-day on the 9th sent me a note by a Police Sowar who never delivered it. This ought to have been with me at Ooreyah before 2 o'clock, in which case I could have had my whole Force upon the point of passage before dark, as I was only waiting to know where they really were. I could not have failed to inflict on them the most serious loss.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) P. E. HERBERT, Brigadier,

Comdg. Cawnpore and Futtehpore Districts.

P. S.—The elephants crossed mostly the following morning.

I find that I have made a mistake in the day of the month, and fear my other letters have been wrongly dated. It was on Friday morning the 10th, that I came on the enemy on the river bank. I think it right to report that there were four traffic boats upon the Jumna, which materially assisted the enemy in crossing. I add this Postscript from Puhpoond December 18th.

The Cavalry I detached have returned from the Chumbul, and will move back to Cawnpore, one march behind me. Captain Hume, with a Detachment 80th Regiment, is with me here, also on his way back to Cawnpore, which I have desired him to make by easy marches.

I hope to make Cawnpore (myself) on Wednesday.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to submit for the information of Major-General Michel, C. B., Commanding the Malwa Division, the following report of an action fought by the Troops under my command as per margin, with the Rebel

2 Guns 9-Pra. & Battery ...	80	Army under Tantia Topse and Rao Sahib on the first day of December 1858, opposite the town of Oodeypore, on the river Oor. The town of Oodeypore is situated on the right bank of the river, surrounded by dense jungles and mountains with the exception of a small and comparatively—speaking clear space leading up to the town, on which the Rebel Army had been encamped. Oodeypore is on the direct road to Baroda, from Hooksee and the Eastward.

1. On the 30th November I reached a village called Chandpore, about 45 miles West of Hooksee, and learnt that the Rebel Army had only marched from thence that morning to Oodeypore, en route, it was stated, to Baroda and Guzerat. In the evening, I left in hopes of surprising the enemy before he marched the following morning.

2. The night march was through the densest jungle for twenty-two miles, at the end of which the narrow road debouched into a somewhat less thickly wooded plain, which gradually became more open as we advanced. Our spies here informed me of the proximity of the enemy; soon afterwards Lieutenant Moore, Commanding the advance guards of the Aden Troop Scinde Horse, reported that the enemy's outlying pickets were on the alert, that some of them had been subdued by his men, but that the alarm had been given.

3. I moved rapidly forward to select the most favourable spot for forming the Brigade, throwing out skirmishers from the 72nd Highlanders.

4. The Cavalry, placed under the command of Captain Buckle, of the 3rd Bombay Cavalry, and attached to the Guzerat Irregular Horse, was formed into two lines, in rear of the Artillery and Infantry support; the first line consisted of Irregular Cavalry, the second line of Her Majesty's 8th Hussars and 2nd Bombay Cavalry.

5. It was exceedingly difficult at first to ascertain the enemy's position, owing to the undulations of the ground and the brushwood which circumstances, however, had the advantage of concealing the small number of my Infantry and Guns.

6. The enemy soon appeared, mostly Cavalry, very well mounted, in front and on both flanks, evidently with the intention of opposing our advance.

7. I determined to clear the right flank first. The 2nd Regiment of Mahratta Horse was accordingly ordered up and made a brilliant charge, capturing a standard, under their gallant Commander Lieutenant Kerr, who effectually carried out his orders.

8. I now moved the Artillery forward, with the Highlanders skirmishing on both flanks, under Lieutenant Vesey; the enemy's trumpets sounded the British advance, and he came on with a bold front, but the Artillery and Enfield Rifles opening fire, turned him back; another body now threatened our left flank. I changed front accordingly, the Guzerat Horse simultaneously charging to our original front, present right, led by Lieutenant Newton, drove the enemy before them to the South, past the town of Oodeypore across the river, (shallow with sandy bottom) into the mountains.

9. The Artillery was rapidly brought up into the new positions and well served by Lieutenant Heathorn, who opened fire with canister shot.

10. The ground in our immediate front was much broken between us and the enemy; several small huts, almost concealed from view, were held by matchlockmen on our right; their fire however did us no harm. A party of the Highlanders under Lieutenant Champion (no Troops could behave better) advanced, cleared these hovels, and the enemy now fled past our left, giving an opportunity for an excellent charge by 8th Hussars under Captain Clowes, 2nd Bombay Cavalry, under Captain Smith, reinforced by a Troop of Mahratta Horse, under Lieutenant Bannerman. This latter Troop, being more favourably situated than the others, closed first with the enemy. On this occasion Lieutenant Bannerman distinguished himself; his horse was severely wounded.

11. The enemy was now driven across the river, (the course of which runs almost in a semi-circle round the town); the opposite side and a small island in the middle of the stream were held by the enemy's Infantry, of whom a considerable number were killed, many dressed in British uniform with British arms and accoutrements.

12. The Cavalry followed, killing many, until the remaining fugitives were scattered through the jungles and away into the mountains.

13. In the mean time the Mahratta Horse on our original right had pursued a body of the enemy supposed to consist of the 5th Bengal Irregular Cavalry, well mounted; several of the killed wore the uniform of that Corps.

The Aden Troop Scinde Horse did good service in the same direction.

14. Further pursuit was impossible, not only owing to the country being mountainous and covered on all sides with dense jungles, but the Troops had marched upwards of (240) two hundred and forty miles, between the evening of 21st November and daylight on the morning of the 1st December, including the passage of the Nerbudda River.

The Troops had been on the march the whole of the two previous nights.

15. I was aware of the great importance of attacking the enemy with the utmost speed before he reached Baroda, to which place I am convinced he was hastening, recruiting his Cavalry by the plunder of every horse to be met with.

16. By all accounts, from different quarters, I am satisfied that this Rebel Army was scattered in opposite directions.

17. It is very difficult to form a correct estimate of the numbers of the enemy; from all that I can learn and from my own observation I should say about (3,500 or 4,000) three thousand five hundred or four thousand men, evidently the best remains of this once numerous body.

18. The loss of the enemy is estimated at about (250 or 300) two hundred and fifty or three hundred men. Our own loss has not been heavy.

19. The conduct of the Troops has been excellent, not only when engaged with the enemy, but during the fatigues of the late forced marches, provisions also been scarce. The Rebels had plundered the villages on our route.

20. I am much indebted to Captain Buckle, 3rd Bombay Cavalry and Guzerat Horse, for the good service which he has performed and for the valuable assistance which his knowledge of this part of the Country has afforded me.

To Captain Clowes, Commanding Troop 18th Hussars, not only on this occasion, but during the whole pursuit of the Rebels by the 2nd Brigade Rajpootannah Field Force.

To Captain Smith, Commanding Troop 2nd Bombay Cavalry.

To Lieutenant Kerr, Commanding 2nd Regiment Southern Mahratta Horse.

To Lieutenant Vesey, Commanding Detachment 72nd Highlanders. But I consider that Lieutenant Heathorn, the Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Bombay Artillery, are deserving of special notice, and most strongly do I recommend them to the favourable consideration of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, not only for the manner in which they have kept up their guns (nine-pounders) with Cavalry, but also for the truly Soldier-like, cheerful perseverance with which they have undergone extraordinary fatigues and overcome every difficulty.

Of Captain Stewart, Major of Brigade, 13th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, I can speak highly as an attentive deserving Officer.

Captain Rice, 72nd Highlanders, acted as my Orderly Officer; as such and as a Regimental Officer throughout the operations in Rajpootannah and the pursuit of the Rebels, he has been most useful and assiduous in the discharge of his duty.

Assistant Surgeon Butler, 72nd Highlanders, and Assistant Surgeon Bell, Southern Mahratta Horse, the only two Medical Officers with the Force, paid every care and attention to the Sick and Wounded.

21. For some months past, I was without the assistance of any Political Officer except Lieutenant Burton, Assistant Superintendent at Neomuch, who has accompanied me throughout the pursuit; to him I am much indebted. Without his aid, his thorough knowledge of the native language, and his indefatigable exertions when provisions were scarce, roads almost impassable during the rainy season, transport failing, I believe my Brigade would frequently have been unable to move. The information also which he obtained throughout Districts with which he was in no ways connected, was generally correct.

22. Having alluded to the conduct of the Troops at present under my immediate command, I trust I may be permitted to bring to the notice of the Major-General Commanding, and through him to that of the Commander-in-Chief, the services of that portion of the 2nd Brigade Rajpootana Field Force which was not present at the action of the 1st December, but, which has been engaged and has marched upwards of fifteen hundred miles, during the hot, as also during the rainy season, in the pursuit of Rebels, throughout the greater part of Rajpootana, through Malwa, and has crossed the eight principal rivers on this side of India, viz. : the Banass, Baruss, Chumbul, Colly Sind, Newaj, Perbutty, Betwah and the Nerbudda, (twice), some at much risk and with great difficulty. I avail myself of this opportunity of bearing public testimony to the really Soldier-like qualities of these Troops.

I enclose a return of Killed, Wounded and Missing on the 1st December.

I have, &c.,

ALLAHABAD, JANUARY 19, 1859.

EXTRAORDINARY.

No. 654.

Allahabad, the 18th January 1859.

In it Lord Clyde announces that the Campaign in which the Troops under his immediate Command have been engaged is closed, and that Rebellion no longer exists in Oude.

The Governor General seizes the earliest opportunity of tendering his warmest thanks to the Commander-in-Chief, and to the noble Army which he leads, for their accomplishment of this good work.

By a large and complete scheme of combined operations, laid down carefully, and carried out inflexibly and irresistibly, this happy result has been achieved without a single check, and with no needless waste of life.

The authority of the British Government has been asserted mercifully in Oude; but it is now established, and made manifest to all, and from this day it shall be maintained in unassailable strength.

The Governor General desires to record his special acknowledgments to Major General Sir Hope Grant, K. C. B., and to Major General Sir William Mansfield, K. C. B., for the new services rendered by those distinguished Officers in this Campaign.

His Lordship also desires to thank the Officers who have commanded Brigades, and the Regimental Commanders of the Army of Oude, for the complete success to which, each in his part they have contributed.

The best acknowledgments of the Governor General are due to Major Norman, Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, Captain Algood, and the Officers of the Army, Staff, and to Colonel Sterling, C. B., and the Personal Staff at Head-Quarters, for the efficient assistance which they have given to the Commander-in-Chief.

The Governor General well knows the value to be attached to the judgment, temper, and energy of the Chief Commissioner of Oude, and thoroughly appreciates the importance of the co-operation which the Commander-in-Chief and the Army have received from him. His Lordship emphatically thanks Mr. Montgomery for his admirable service to the State as the Head of the Local Government in Oude.

The difficult functions entrusted to Major Barrow, C. B., Special Commissioner in the Commander-in-Chief's Camp, and to Major Bruce, C. B., Superintendent of Police in Oude, have throughout the Campaign been discharged judiciously and successfully, and with a zeal which calls for the Governor General's special acknowledgments.

It will be very gratifying to the Governor General to bring to the notice of the Queen's Government, the exemplary manner in which the Queen's Army in Oude and the Officers attached to it have done their duty.

R. J. H. BIRCH, Major-General,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Dept.,
with the Governor General.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE VISCOUNT CANNING,
Viceroy and Governor General.
Head-Quarters, Camp on the Raptee,
The 7th January 1859.

MY LORD,

WHEN I last had the honor to address your Excellency, on the progress of the Campaign in Oudh on the 25th November 1858, I reported that the first half of it had been brought to a conclusion, the Rebels having been for the most part driven across the Gogra, with the exception of the Seetapore District, which stretches from the border of Rohilund to the neighbourhood of Lucknow.

It is now my pleasing duty further to report to your Excellency, that the Campaign is at an end, that there is no longer even the vestige of Rebellion in the province of Oudh, and that the last remnant of the Mutineers and Insurgents has been hopelessly driven across the mountains which form the Barrier between the Kingdom of Nepal and Her Majesty's Empire of Hindostan.

These results have been attained by following the course of action first initiated in the month of July, when the Campaign of Oudh for the reduction of the country, really commenced, viz by not committing the Troops to a forward movement, until I should be ready to support it on every side, and so to convert a march into a thorough process of occupation, as was done in the Doab last year after the battle of Cawnpore.

Due preparation once made, the Troops have always been instantly thrown forward, in spite of every difficulty of season, and their work rendered permanent.

Hence it arose that the Campaigns in Behar, Gorucknore, and Oudh have been always treated as a whole, and I have in great measure continued to trust to my own judgment, to fix the date when decisive operation should commence in each territory, with due regard to the general plan, from the great outline and features of which a departure has not at any time been permitted.

It is with no ordinary feelings of satisfaction and of thankfulness to the Officers and Soldiers of the Army, who have displayed such unwearied constancy, perseverance, and fortitude in giving execution to my orders, that I have it consequently in my power to announce to your Excellency that on the 1st January, the last day of clemency permitted under the Proclamation of Her Gracious Majesty the Queen, it was reported to me by the Special Commissioner attached to my Camp in a Civil capacity, that the law and civil administration had been re-established in every District of Oudh, similar reports having been made respecting Goruckpore and Behar a few weeks previously.

On the 31st December 1858 the Rebels were engaged for the last time by me, as a Military body in Oudh, and driven across the border. The force actually with me is encamped close to it. The Begum with her immediate followers having been as yet deaf to the offers of Her Majesty's clemency, has sought an asylum in Nepal, while nearly every Chief or Talukdar, I may say almost without an exception, whose hands have not been imbrued in murder, has surrendered, and is now in the course of making an amicable arrangement with the Chief Commissioner of Oudh.

The disarmament of the people and the dismantling of the Forts of the country have proceeded rapidly under the protection of the Columns and Garrisons left in different parts of the Province, as the general advance of the long line pressed further onwards, until at length it was arrested by the mountains of Nepal, the Frontier of Her Majesty's ally.

Many hundred guns and about three hundred and fifty thousand arms of different descriptions have been collected in Oudh, and more than three hundred Forts have been destroyed.

A considerable number of the Mutineers have surrendered and been allowed to retire to their homes, and the population of the country is settling down in all directions in the most satisfactory manner.

I now present to your Excellency a slight Sketch of the Military movements of the last six weeks.

It will be in the recollection of your Excellency that a few hours after the evacuation of Shunkerpore, (on the 18th November 1858,) by Bance Madho, the force which had been concentrated for the reduction of that place, was broken up, * Brigadier Taylor, C. in his usual brilliant manner, crossed the Gogra on the 25th November, and engaged a large body of Insurgents under the Rajah of Gonda and Mahndes Houssein, taking six guns and utterly routing the enemy with, but small loss to himself. ‡ Gonda was then occupied by Sir Hope Grant, and Brigadier Rowcroft was gradually pushed forward across the Raptee to Heer in the Goruckpore District; this latter movement driving the Rebels who had so long annoyed the Western Frontier of that District, into Toolseepore in Oudh to the North of the Raptee.

It had now become necessary for Sir Hope Grant to stop his forward movement until the advance along the line had been made, otherwise that which we most dreaded, might probably have taken place, and the rebels passing round his right flank under the mountains might have invaded Tishoot and Behar.

He was accordingly warned to use the greatest care to prevent such a catastrophe, and to confine himself to that duty for the present.

In the meantime the other Brigades of the Army had not been idle. After the fight of Dhoondsa-Khaira I moved by forced marches to Lucknow with the Troops as per margin. Another Brigade broken up in the Roy Bareilly District, furnished Moveable Columns, which respectively under Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon, Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant-Colonel Carmichael, H. M.'s 32nd Regiment, pursued Bance Madho to the banks of the Gogra, Lieutenant-Colonel Carmichael taking up the running as it were from Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon. While Lieutenant-Colonel Carmichael was in pursuit, Brigadier Horsford intercepted Bance Madho, who, flying in confusion, was driven with his followers across the Goomtee, by Brigadier Horsford's Cavalry and Horse Artillery under Lieutenant-Colonel Sir William Russell, Bart., 7th Hussars. All these Officers distinguished themselves by the decision and certainty of their movements. Finding on my arrival at Lucknow on the 28th November, that I should be obliged to stop there a few days to make certain arrangements, and to meet the demands of the corres-occupied the Fort of Oomersh after a sharp resistance; he remained there for three days, engaged in levelling it to the ground. This Fort, owing to its position, had hitherto barred the North West road from Lucknow, and had been for a long time a source of much inconvenience.

Brigadier Horsford, having completed his prescribed duty on the right bank of the Ganges, had now marched through Lucknow. Another Brigade formed under Brigadier Purnell, C. B., H. M.'s 90th Light Infantry at Nawahgunge Barabunkee, was joined to him.

I left Lucknow on the 5th December and reached Byram Ghât with Brigadier Horsford's Brigade on the next day. I found Bance Madho's followers, who had retreated before Lieutenant-Colonel Carmichael, still lingering on the opposite side of the river.

Sir Hope Grant having been previously ordered to occupy Seerora in their rear, they quickly disappeared and retreated Northwards as soon as they became aware of his march from Gonda to that place.

It appeared to me unavailing to delay the campaign during the tedious process of collecting boats and materials to bridge the Gogra.

Leaving therefore Brigadier Purnell with his Brigade to effect thence proceeded in two marches to Seerora, followed by Colonel Christie, H. M.'s 80th Foot, with a detail of Troops as per margin.*

Sir Hope Grant waited to receive me at Seerora by appointment, while his Troops had been already pushed one march on their way to Bulrampur on the Raptae.

The Major-General was now instructed to commence his movement immediately on Toolseepore, by causing Brigadier Rowcroft to bring forward his right shoulder and invade the Toolseepore territory from the North-West corner of Goruckpore. A strong post was also formed at Simrort to ward off the chance of the Brigadier's advance being turned to the Eastward. Bala Rao was reported to hold Toolseepore in considerable strength.

I then marched forward to Bareitch with Brigadier Horsford, the Begun and her forces retiring from Boondee, and the Nana from Bareitch as I moved on.

At the same time Brigadier Eveleigh, who had been directed on Fyzabad, was ordered to take post at Gonda to form a reserve to the Columns moving Northwards, to settle the country, and level the forts.

Brigadier Purnell was desired to assist in the guard of the Gogra to the North West; one of his Regiments, H. M.'s 23rd Fusiliers, marching up the small Doab between the Chowka and Sarjoo Mullapore with two guns and a detachment Irregular Cavalry.

In the same manner Brigadier Tronp, Bengal Native Infantry, who after the fall of Biawah had taken post at Jehangirabad on the Chowka, was ordered to throw H. M.'s 60th Rifles with two guns, and a detachment of Cavalry across that stream, and to extend the remainder of his force to the left.

The various forces at Mohundee, Shahjehanpore, Phillibheet, Madho, Tanda, &c., on the Rohilkund frontier, were put well on the alert, so that no resource might be left to the Rebel forces, but to surrender or to take to the Hills of Nepal.

To cause this pressure to be still more felt before the last advance was made, Colonel Christie was detached from Bareitch and ordered to march up the left bank of the Sarjoo to Durmapore. He left Bareitch on the 21st, the movement of the various Columns having been delayed by rain for some days.

On the 23rd I left Bareitch, passed Nanparah on the 26th, and after marching twenty miles on that day, attacked a considerable body of Rebels at Burgidia. Their left flank was turned. They fled after making a slight resistance, and were pursued until nightfall, leaving their guns in our hands.

On the 27th the force marched on the Fort of Majidlia. This place was taken after three hours of vertical fire from two mortars and a cannonade from an 18-pounder and a 3-inch Howitzer; the Infantry being carefully laid out to command the enemy's embrasures and parapets.

I have much satisfaction in dwelling on the manner in which this Fort was captured, with a very trifling amount of loss to the Troops engaged. The Chief Engineer, Colonel Harness, Royal Engineers, has reported it to be one of the strongest as respects artificial defences that he has seen in India. But like all the others, it was without bomb-proof cover, and consequently fell easily into our hands after a few hours of well directed fire.

As your Lordship is aware every Brigade has been carefully provided throughout the war, since the fall of Lucknow, with heavy guns to ensure similar results in the attack of the Forts of Oudh.

On the 29th the Troops returned to Nanparah, made a forced march on the night of the 30th to the vicinity of Bankee, where the enemy had intrenched under the Nana. He was surprised and attacked with great vigor, driven through a jungle which he attempted to defend, and finally into and across the Raptae, the 7th Hussars entering that river with the fugitives. On this occasion the troops distinguished themselves, more particularly the 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade under Colonel Hill, and the 7th Hussars under Lieutenant-Colonel Sir William Russell. I have to deplore the loss of Major Horne, 7th Hussars, who was drowned in the waters of the Raptée. He led the left wing of the Regiment. Captain Stisted, who led the 1st Squadron, was rescued with great difficulty from a similar fate.

The next day it was reported that all the bodies of Rebels which had been retreating before us from the day of our arrival at Byran Ghât, had either surrendered or passed the Nepal frontier.

In these various affairs 18 guns fell into our hands.

Colonel Christie had a successful skirmish on the 23rd December, and took two guns in pursuit. He then made a circuit to the North by Padma, and rejoined my Camp on the 3rd January.

In the meantime Brigadier Rowcroft attacked Toolseepore on the 23rd December, driving Bala Rao from that point to the foot of the mountains and taking two guns. Sir Hope Grant was alarmed about his flank being turned to the Eastward and to the North of Goruckpore. Acting according to his instructions and with great judgment, he made that point absolutely safe, before renewing his attack on Bala Rao. That being done he advanced through the jungles on that leader, and took fifteen guns from him, almost without the show of resistance on the part of the Rebels; the latter dispersing and seeking refuge in the adjacent hills, and Bala Rao flying into the interior, as the Nana, his brother, had done before him.

Thus has the contest in Oudh been brought to an end, and the resistance of 1,50,000 armed men been subdued with very moderate loss to H. M.'s Troops, and the most merciful forbearance towards the misguided enemy.

For the present Brigadier Horsford has been left watching the Nepal Frontier, where the Raptée debouches from the mountains. A similar arrangement will be made in the Toolseepore District.

I propose to give charge of the position to Sir Hope Grant, and to return to Lucknow myself forthwith.

I desire to offer my particular acknowledgments to the Chief Commissioner of Oudh, Mr. Montgomery, for the cordiality and good will with which he has been pleased to co-operate with me in the execution of his high office. The instructions issued by him to the Officers under his orders were most eminently calculated to facilitate the progress and efforts of the Troops.

His two representatives in my Camp, Major Barrow, C. B., Special Commissioner, and Major Bruce, C. B., Superintendent of the Oudh Police, won my warmest thanks for the manner in which they have given effect to the instructions of the Chief Commissioner.

Sir Hope Grant's Despatches during the last six months have told the story of the admirable part taken by him in this war. I cannot say too much in his praise. He has the rare merit of uniting the greatest boldness in action, a firm and correct judgment, and the most scrupulous regard for his orders and instructions.

I desire also to recommend to your Excellency's most favorable consideration, the Officers who have commanded Brigades, at different times, in the Army of Oudh.

Some have been employed in more active situations than others, but all have acted with real zeal and devotion to the common cause. I therefore include them in one list:—

The late Colonel Berkeley, C. B.	...	H. M.'s 82nd IA. Bdy.
Brigadier Horsford, C. B.	...	Rifle Brigade.
" Taylor, C. B.	...	79th Highlanders.
" Eveleigh, C. B.	...	20th Regiment.
" Purnell, C. B.	...	80th Light Infantry.
" Barker, C. B.	...	Royal Artillery.
" Wetherall, C. B.	...	Unattached.
" Pinckney, C. B.	...	73rd Regiment.
" Hall, C. B.	...	82nd Regiment.
" Hon'ble P. Herbert, C. B.	...	82nd Regiment.
" Jones, C. B.	...	6th Dragoon Guards.
" Hagar, C. B.	...	7th Hussars.
" Troup	...	B. N. I.
" Fischer	...	Madras N. I.
Colonel Kelly, C. B.	...	84th Regiment.
" Christie	...	80th Regiment.

I refrain from troubling your Excellency with a long list of the Officers who have commanded Regiments and have filled the subordinate Staff Appointments. I wish to say that they and the men under their command, throughout the long struggle carried on without intermission in every season of the year, ten months having elapsed since the fall of Lucknow, during which they have ever kept the field, have been distinguished by a discipline and a constancy unsurpassed in any war.

The service was attended by great fatigue, by never ceasing sickness, and was performed alike during the intense heat of the summer, the languor of the Indian rains and the more bracing season of winter. But the discipline of Her Majesty's Troops never swerved.

All ranks have emulated one another in their exertions. For this we have to thank the high sense of duty and the personal example of Regimental Commanders and Staff Officers, the watchful and provident care of the Staff and Regimental Surgeons, and the admirable spirit which animates the Soldiers of Her Majesty's Regiment, of every denomination. It is indeed a subject of pride to have had the honor of commanding such an Army.

I cannot conclude this Despatch without referring to the very great and cordial assistance which I have constantly received from Major General Sir W. Mansfield, K. C. B., the Chief of the Staff. As it seems probable that active operations will now cease, I have the greatest pleasure in seizing the opportunity of recording my grateful sense of what I owe to this Officer, and of recommending him in the strongest possible manner for the favorable consideration of your Excellency.

Sir W. Mansfield executed all the details of the various operations, which I had thought it advisable to order, with the greatest ability, and showed the most unwearied diligence in directing, as was necessary, the simultaneous movements of so many bodies of Troops, scattered often in small detachments over a very great extent of country, and his care and attention have in a great measure tended to bring about the very rapid and favorable results which have been obtained, and the course of which has been already related.

The Officers who have more particularly worked under the Chief of the Staff during the last year, in regards the execution of their various offices in respect of the war, are Major Norman, Deputy Adjutant General of the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, Officiating Quarter-Master-General of the Army, and Captain Allgood, Assistant Quarter-Master General.

The merits of Major Norman are well known to your Excellency, and he has continued to deserve my highest approbation.

Colonel Macpherson has always performed his duty to my satisfaction, and he has found a very able and industrious Assistant in Captain Allgood. The latter has been with me from the time I first took the field in 1857.

I have the honor to recommend these three Officers to your Excellency's favorable notice.

It remains for me to solicit your Excellency's protection to the Officers of my personal Staff, and of that of Sir William Mansfield.

I am under real obligation to my Military Secretary Colonel Sterling, C. B., who has ever been employed in the most confidential and important manner throughout the transactions of the past year to my entire satisfaction.

The other Officers alluded to, have performed their duties in the most careful, intelligent, and active manner.

They are as follows:—

Lieutenant-Colonel Metcalfe, 4th Europeans, Persian Interpreter.

Captain Alison, H. M.'s 19th Foot.

Lieutenant the Hon'ble J. C. Dormer, H. M.'s 13th Light Infantry, A. D. C. to myself.

Lieutenant-Colonel Crealock, H. M.'s 90th Light Infantry, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General to the Chief of the Staff.

Lieutenant Flood, H. M.'s 53rd Regiment, A. D. C.

Captain Viscount Dangan, Coldstream Guards, Acting A. D. C.

I have the honor to be,

MY LORD,

With the greatest respect,

Your Excellency's very obedient, humble Servant,

CLYDE, General,

Commander-in-Chief, East Indies.
